Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Maxine Stirling has been a lifelong resident of the State of South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, After raising four children and years of helping her husband on the ranch, Maxine began working for the State of South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, Maxine started working as receptionist for the Department of water and Natural Resources on June 13, 1977 and with the Water Rights Division on January 14, 1982; and,

WHEREAS, Maxine is one of the most sincere, conscientious and personable employees to ever work for the department; and,

WHEREAS, After 11 years of dedicated service to the Department of Water and Natural Resources and having reached the age of 65, Maxine is retiring from employment with DWNR to enjoy her life on the ranch with her husband; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of Maxine's achievements:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim December 9, 1988, as

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fifth Day of December, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
